

Biography

Marc L. Intermaggio, CAE
Executive Vice President & Corporate Secretary

Marc Intermaggio, CAE, is Executive Vice President & Corporate Secretary for the Building Owners and Managers Association (BOMA) of San Francisco, a 501-c-6 trade association. As leader of this commercial property trade group, one of San Francisco's oldest business organizations, his primary responsibilities include strategic planning, labor relations, leadership development and team building, external relations, program direction and the fiscal management of BOMA. He also serves as Executive Director and CEO for the BOMA San Francisco Foundation, a 501-c-3 working to expand and diversify commercial real estate's workforce.

Prior to joining BOMA San Francisco, Mr. Intermaggio worked for Washington, D.C.- based BOMA International, where he served in a number of capacities including staff director for BOMA's National Advisory Council, Manager of Governmental Affairs, and Editor of the Association's monthly publication. He also served as Washington-area editor for Buildings Magazine, a national trade publication, and was a member of the Consultative Council of the National Institute of Building Sciences as well as the Passive Solar Industries Council.

Mr. Intermaggio is past Chair of the Board of Governors of The City Club of San Francisco, and served on the Board of Directors of The City Club Foundation. He is a Management Trustee for the IUOE Stationary Engineers Local 39 Apprenticeship Training Trust. He's a past member of BOMA International's Executive Committee, and past president of BOMA International's Association Executives Council. Marc previously served on the Board of Directors of the American Society of Association Executives (ASAE); was a member of the Leadership Council of the Northern California Network of ASAE, and was an officer of the Northern California Society of Association Executives.

Mr. Intermaggio received a BA degree in English from Guilford College in Greensboro, N.C. and is an alumnus of Stanford University's Leadership Academy.

Last updated January 2016