BOMA SAN FRANCISCO APPOINTS NEW BOARD MEMBERS

San Francisco, CA – The Building Owners and Managers Association (BOMA) of San Francisco announced today that it has named Mary Wiese and Scott Stephens to its Board of Directors. As members of the Board, Ms. Wiese and Mr. Stephens will be actively involved setting BOMA's strategic direction and oversight of its membership-service initiatives.

Ms. Wiese is the managing principal of CAC Real Estate Management Co., Inc. She is an active member of Commercial Real Estate Women (CREW) and a mayoral appointee to the Citizen's Advisory Committee for the Trans Bay Redevelopment Plan. Prior to co-founding CAC Real Estate Management Co., Inc. (in 1994), Wiese was with Hogland, Bogart & Bertero.

Mr. Stephens is a partner and vice president of property management for Wilson/Equity Office, Inc., where he is responsible for the management of more than three million square feet of commercial real estate. He held a similar position with William Wilson & Associates before its merger with Equity Office Properties, as well as with Pacific Union Real Estate. In 1984, Mr. Stephens co-founded California Asset Management Company (CAMCo), doing so after managing local building operations for Southern Pacific Development Company. He began his career as the assistant executive vice president for BOMA San Francisco.

BOMA San Francisco is a not-for-profit association providing an array of services to members from the local commercial real estate industry, including labor negotiations, legislative and regulatory advocacy, market condition reports and operating expense information. It also provides for the professional development of its members through seminars, workshops and certification programs. BOMA San Francisco is federated with BOMA International, an organization consisting of 100 local associations in North America, as well as several, affiliated BOMAs worldwide. BOMA San Francisco is a founding member of BOMA California.
