BOMA SAN FRANCISCO APPOINTS HAROUT HAGOPIAN TO ITS BOARD

San Francisco, CA, November 27, 2006 – The Building Owners and Managers Association (BOMA) of San Francisco announced today it has appointed Harout Hagopian of Equity Office Properties to its Board of Directors. As a member of the Board, Mr. Hagopian will be directly involved in both setting BOMA San Francisco's strategic direction and oversight of the Association's membership-service initiatives.

A 13-year veteran of the real estate industry, Mr. Hagopian serves as Managing Director for the San Francisco Region of Equity Office Properties, directing property management activities for 4.9 million square feet of Equity Office property. Prior to joining Equity Office, he served as General Manager for Beacon Properties' Silicon Valley portfolio. Mr. Hagopian also served as a Business Development Manager for the City of San Jose's Redevelopment Agency and as a Real Estate Manager for IDS Real Estate Group, a Los Angeles-based real estate firm.

Mr. Hagopian is a resident of Danville, CA, and he earned a bachelor's degree in Management and Human Resources from the California State Polytechnic University in Pomona.
